

MARINE MANAGED AREAS AND WORLD HERITAGE

A PUBLIC FORUM & RECEPTION

Photo by James Watt

Celebrate efforts to protect our heritage and marine resources in Oceania!

“Our Sea of Islands” conference participants will highlight the accomplishments of the weeklong forum and efforts to protect important marine areas. Speakers are leaders in marine conservation from Hawai‘i, the Solomon Islands, Micronesia and UNESCO’s World Heritage Centre.

GUEST SPEAKERS

‘AULANI WILHELM

NOAA Superintendent,
Northwestern Hawaiian Islands
Marine National Monument

SALAMAT “ALI” TABBASUM

UNESCO World Heritage Centre, Paris

WILLIAM KOSTKA

Executive Director of the
Micronesia Conservation Trust,
Pohnpei

WILLIAM ATU

Project Manager for
The Nature Conservancy
Solomon Islands Program

SOL KAHO’OHALAHALA

Executive Director of the
Kaho’olawe Island Reserve

FREE PARKING

ENTER THROUGH EAST-WEST CENTER GATE

THURSDAY • FEBRUARY 1 • 6:00PM - 8:00PM
EAST-WEST CENTER’S KEONI AUDITORIUM—UH MĀNOA